

Objective:

- Understand that The United States of America is a Christian nation based on its moral values.
- Know that America is unique/exceptional in that it was founded on equal justice and liberty.
- Realize that America's Constitution must be strictly followed if this nation is to remain free.
- Reveal the poor understanding that Christianity and Islam cannot co-exist.
- Know that there are hidden forces that seek to destroy this nation.
- Understand that without involvement in government Christians will fail the founders and God.
- Recognize that involving your family in your work and ideals strengthens the family and nation.
- Understand that there is an absolute right and it has been established by a Superior Authority.
- Realize that this nation is at a turning point between following God or following man.
- Know that it is time for Christians to be faithful and courageously stand up for what is right.

America has changed since the 1960's. Our moral standards have deteriorated, particularly in the past several years. Our freedom is being lost. Do you remember when you could walk to school without fear, or when you didn't have to lock your car or your house doors? Men were men and women were women. Marriage was between a man and a woman. The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts taught young boys and girls honor and skills they would need to become responsible and mature adults. Your neighbors had similar values as yours. When everyone was proud to be an American and being an American citizen was special. When every parent wanted their children to be more successful than themselves, when people valued hard work, and when expressing your Christian faith did not result in belittlement and persecution. What happened? Why are those times gone? If you want to know why these things have changed, you need to attend the conference – America – The Truth; even more importantly, your children, especially your young adults. They need to hear the truth, that all those values came from God, and must instill those truths in their heart and mind. If they do not and fail to get involved, the America they know now will not be the same tomorrow. Do they want to lose their freedom and see corrupt justice? And from where will our great leaders come and what will they believe, if there are no laws, principles, standards or beliefs that cannot be changed?
